1. COMPETENCES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

1.1. Competencies

Basic skills

CB1 Students are able to possess and understand the knowledge in an area of study that is based on general secondary education, and is usually found at a level that, while supported by advanced textbooks, also includes some aspects that involve knowledge from the forefront of their field of study.

CB2 Ability to apply knowledge professionally to work or vocation, demonstrate argumentation skills, and resolve problems within the field of study.

CB3 Students should have the ability to gather and interpret relevant data (normally within their area of study) to make judgments that include a reflection on relevant issues of a social, scientific or ethical nature.

CB4 Students can transmit information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialized and non-specialized audiences.

CB5 Students have developed the learning skills necessary to undertake further studies with a high degree of autonomy.

General skills

CG1 Ability to use skills specific to intellectual work (understand, synthesize, outline, explain, present, organize).

CG3 Ability to manage information.

CG7 Ability for self-initiative, self-motivation and perseverance.

CG10 Ability for interpersonal communication, awareness of one's own capabilities and resources.

CG12 Ability to recognize diversity and respect multiculturalism.

Specific skills

CEC1 Know the curricular areas of Primary Education, the interdisciplinary relationship between them, the evaluation criteria and the body of didactic knowledge around the respective teaching and learning procedures.

CEC2 Ability to promote and facilitate learning in early childhood from a comprehensive and integrative perspective that encompasses the cognitive, emotional, psychomotor, and volitional dimensions.

CEC3 Effectively address language learning situations in multicultural and multilingual contexts.

CEC12 Assume the educational dimension of the teaching role and promote democratic education for active citizenship.

CEM41 Acquire literary training and learn about children's literature.

CEM47 Deal with language learning situations in multilingual contexts.

CEM48 Express yourself, orally and in writing, in a foreign language.

CEM55 Acquire practical knowledge of the classroom and its management.

CEM56 Know and apply the processes of interaction and communication in the classroom and master the social skills and abilities necessary to foster a classroom climate that facilitates learning and coexistence.

CEM57 Control and monitor the educational process and in particular the teaching-learning process by mastering the necessary techniques and strategies.

CEM66 Develop and evaluate curriculum content using appropriate teaching resources and promote corresponding competencies in students.

2.4. Teaching methodologies

The teaching staff may choose between one or more of the following methodologies detailed in the verified degree report:

Code	Teaching methodologies	Description
MD1	Expository method. Master lecture	Structured presentation of the topic by the teacher to facilitate information to students, transmit knowledge and activate cognitive processes. Active student participation is encouraged through debate, discussion of cases, questions and presentations.
MD2	Individual study	Autonomous and reflective work of the student, to deepen the acquisition of the associated skills (preparation of classes and exams; use of information sources; completion of assignments, presentations; use of ICT; participation in discussion forums, etc.).
MD3	Collaborative learning	Develop active and significant learning in a cooperative way.
MD4	Troubleshooting	Active methodology that allows to exercise, rehearse and put into practice previous knowledge.
MD5	Case studies	Analysis of a real or simulated case to learn about it, interpret it, solve it, generate hypotheses, contrast data, reflect, complete knowledge, etc.
MD6	Project-oriented learning	Carry out a project to solve a problem and apply acquired skills and knowledge.
MD7	Tutoring (individual and/or group)	Methodology based on the teacher as a guide for student learning. Face-to-face or through the use of technological tools such as forums, mail or videoconferences.
MD8	Apprenticeship contract	Develop autonomous learning.

MD9	Self-evaluation	Assessment of one's own knowledge, skills and acquisition of competencies.
MD10	Heteroevaluation	Teacher's evaluation of the student

3. EVALUATION SYSTEM

3.1. Grading system

The final grading system will be expressed numerically, in accordance with Article 5 of Royal Decree 1125/2003 of September 5 (BOE, September 18), which establishes the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) and the official grading scale for university degrees, valid throughout the national territory.

0 - 4.9 Fail (SS)

5.0 - 6.9 Pass (AP)

7.0 - 8.9 Good (NT)

9.0 - 10 Outstanding (SB)

The distinction of "Matrícula de Honor" (Honors) may be awarded to students who achieve a grade of 9.0 or higher. The number of Honors awarded may not exceed 5% of the students enrolled in a given course during the academic year. If fewer than 20 students are enrolled, only one Honors distinction may be granted.

3.3. Restrictions

Minimum qualification

To average the above weightings, it is necessary to obtain at least a grade of 5 in the final test.

Attendance

The student who, without justification, fails to attend more than 25% of the classes may be deprived of the right to take the exam in the regular exam.

Writing standards

Special attention will be paid to the papers, practices and written projects, as well as in the exams to both the presentation and the content, considering grammatical and spelling aspects. Failure to meet the minimum acceptable standards may result in points being deducted on such work.

3.4. Plagiarism warning

Universidad Antonio de Nebrija will not tolerate plagiarism or any form of academic dishonesty under any circumstances. Plagiarism includes the reproduction of text from external sources (internet, books, articles, classmates' papers, etc.) without proper citation of the original source. The use of quotations must be appropriate and not excessive. Plagiarism constitutes a serious offense. If such practices are detected, they will be classified as Serious Misconduct, and the corresponding sanctions established in the Student Regulations may be applied.
