

Andrea Carrera

Teaching areas:
Economics

Email:
acarrera@nebrija.es

He holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Lugano, Switzerland (homologated by UAM). Master's degree in Economics from the Complutense University of Madrid.

Andrea has participated in conferences, research stays and lectures in Europe and North America. Outside academia, Andrea has worked in large firms in Italy and Germany. He is the author of a book on profit theory and bank lending (Routledge, 2019). His new projects include a book for Palgrave Macmillan on the international payments system (with Alvaro Cencini, LSE) and another for Routledge on the monetary history of Spain (with Alberto Pineda Alcántara, KCL).

Research Areas: monetary macroeconomics, monetary history, and international monetary relations.