

IH

Inmaculada Herranz Perlado

Teaching areas:

Human Resources and Leadership

Email:

iherranz@nebrija.es

She holds a Law degree from ICADE and a Sociology degree from UNED.

Partner of the Labor and Employment Department of BDO, with more than 20 years as a labor lawyer in an international firm (PwC). She is a specialist in the application of labor law, legal defense in oral trials, international arbitration and subsequent appeals, collective bargaining and labor relations, as well as in the daily advice to companies in complex matters both nationally and internationally. She also has extensive experience in corporate restructurings, always from the labor law field: negotiation of collective bargaining agreements and pacts, ERES and ERTES, harmonization of conditions, salary reductions, etc. She has been a speaker in different forums.

Recognized in Best Lawyers Magazine as one of the best lawyers for her work in Labor and Employment Law.

Nebrija
Business School