

Paola Rodas

Teaching areas:

Law

Email:

prodas@nebrija.es

She holds a PhD in Law from the University of Valencia EG. Accredited as University Professor by ANECA.

She is an expert in European company law. She has carried out research stays in London, Hamburg and Boston. Her research work is mainly in the field of corporate law, insurance law and maritime law. She is the author of two monographs: Libertad de establecimiento y movilidad internacional de las sociedades mercantiles (Comares 2010), La separación del socio en la Ley de sociedades de capital (Marcial Pons 2013).

Her teaching activity is focused on the field of Commercial Law and International Business. She has taught in Post-graduate Courses and University Master's Degrees at the University of Valencia, Rovira i Virgili University, San Carlos University of Guatemala, etc.

At the university level, she has held management positions, such as the coordination of undergraduate and master's degree courses.

Research Areas: commercial law